Governance and Processes of Bureaucratization

31 January—1 February 2019 • Leipzig University

Thursday, 31 January, 09:00–10:30
Geert De Neve (University of Sussex)
Rations, smartcards and internet centres: How biometric technology affects social protection in Tamil Nadu, India

Friday, 1 February, 09:00–10:30
Matthew Hull (University of Michigan)
Microbiota of the State: Police Procedure and Corporate Customer Service in India

Venue: SFB 1199 | "Strohsackpassage", 5th floor, seminar room | Nikolaistr. 6–10 | 04109 Leipzig
Organizers: Collaborative Research Centre, SFB 1199: Processes of Spatialization under the Global Condition (Project A05), University of Leipzig
DFG Emmy Noether Research Group: The Bureaucratization of Islam and its Socio-Legal Dimensions in Southeast Asia, Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle/Saale
Contact: Leipzig University | SFB 1199 | Ute Rietdorf: sfb1199@uni-leipzig.de